The American Farm Economic Association

---

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I.

Name—The name of the Association shall be The American Farm (Management) Economic Association.

ARTICLE II.

Object.—The object of this Association shall be to promote the investigation and teaching of farm management and other economic questions pertaining to agriculture.

ARTICLE III.

Membership.—The membership shall consist of persons interested in Farm Management and Farm Economics.

ARTICLE IV.

Organization.—The officers shall be a President, Vice-President, and a Secretary-Treasurer, who shall be elected for one year, and who shall serve until their successors shall qualify.

The Executive Committee shall consist of the officers, and shall have the power of appointing committees, selecting time and places of meeting, and of bringing to the attention of the members any matter which in their judgment should be considered by the Association.

There shall be three standing committees appointed annually by the Executive Committee. One of these committees shall consider the lines of investigation best adapted to the needs of the work of farm (management) economics at the present time and shall suggest to various investigators plans of correlation and cooperation in the work. It shall be the duty of this committee to collect, as far as possible from investigators, the lines of work to be carried out each year. The second committee shall investigate the methods of lecture and laboratory work in (management) economics and make suggestions to the members of the Association and to colleges intending to organize courses in farm (management) economics. It shall be the duty of the third committee to report on extension work in farm (management) economics.

ARTICLE V.

Section 1. Dues and Subscription.—The rate for members of the Association shall be two dollars per year, payable in advance. This amount is divided as follows: Annual dues, fifty cents, and annual subscription to the JOURNAL OF FARM ECONOMICS, one dollar and fifty cents.

Section 2.—Life membership in the Association may be secured by the payment of forty dollars ($40). Funds thus obtained shall be invested and the income only spent.

ARTICLE VI.

Meetings.—There shall be held an annual meeting of the Association, the arrangements and program to be made by the Executive Committee. Notice of such meeting shall be mailed to each member at least four weeks in advance.

ARTICLE VII.

Amendments.—This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any annual meeting of the Association.
